This bibliography of 96 items on governance and control of colleges and universities centers mainly on the role and character of trustees and trusteeships. However, items are also included on the administration of church-related institutions, and the roles of students and faculty in governance. The items are drawn from publications appearing from 1933 to 1968, with the large majority coming from books, journals, and the ASSOCIATION OF GOVERNING BOARDS REPORTS. A few items are drawn from newsletters, newspapers, bulletins, papers, and dissertations. (DS)
